MAKING PEACE WITH THE ENEMY

Exploring Forgiveness and Reconciliation

Meet the peacemakers

This public meeting organised by TOUCH OF HOPE, a Peacebuilding and Reconciliation programme in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia and Serbia is part of the events for a visiting group who are working towards a more peaceful society. You will be able to hear from them as well as from our Guest speakers

Jo Berry and Pat Magee

Jo's father Sir Anthony Berry was killed in the bombing of the Grand Hotel Brighton as he attended the Conservative Party Conference. In November 2000 Jo met Pat Magee who was sentenced for his part in planting the Brighton bomb and released as part of the Good Friday Peace Agreement. Jo and Pat work together on Building Bridges for Peace, a non-profit organisation promoting peace and conflict resolution throughout the world and have shared a platform over 200 times and this dialogue has inspired others to choose non-violent solutions to resolving conflict.

Pat Magee writes. 'No matter what we can achieve as two human beings meeting after a terrible event, the loss remains. Neither forgiveness nor understanding can fully embrace that loss. The hope lies in the fact we continue to meet in order to further this mutual process towards understanding.'
